

PRESS RELEASE

Participation of AirBlue Crash Affectees Association (ACAA) in the European Civil Aviation Commission (ECAC) WORKSHOP as one of the founding members of Air Crash Victims Families Federation International (ACVFFI)

Malaga – SPAIN, 9 - 10 June 2016

Mr. Junaid Hamid, Chairman Airblue Crash Affectees Association (ACAA) has been invited to attend the workshop based on Assistance to Victims and their families of Air Accidents organized by ECAC in Malaga 9 – 10 June.

As one of the founding of ACVFFI, Mr. Hamid will also be delivering a speech on 'Challenges to Aviation Safety and Passenger Rights in Pakistan'.

This workshop aims to:

- Review the international recommended practices on the assistance to victims of civil aviation accidents and their relatives.
- Share different approaches and initiatives under different national regulatory regimes/frameworks.
- Discuss common principles regarding civil aviation emergency plans, airport emergency plans and airline plans for assistance to the victims of civil aviation accidents and their relatives.
- Analyze case studies to learn from these past experiences and extract practical lessons.
- Learn the point of view of persons affected by such events (e.g. victims and relatives, emergency services).
- Bring together experts and appropriate authorities in charge of developing policy on the subject.

This is another great milestone that AirBlue Crash Affectees Association (ACAA) has achieved. ACAA is now well known amongst other prominent world associations working for the cause of crash affected families in their countries.
